ANDREW DUARTE

Web Developer and Designer

Relax. I'm here!

"User Interface is like a joke, if you have to explain it, then it's not that good."

Hi, I'm Andrew. A Sydney based Digital Designer and Developer. If I'm not coding and drinking coffee, I'm designing the next best thing through wireframes and mock-ups with Adobe Creative Suite.

Having practical technical capabilities within front-end development and digital design to construct modern day compelling web applications, my passion truly lies in UX/UI design.
